DEMONSTRATION ORCHARD

The department of agriculture is prepared to receive applications for a demonstration orchard in the Lower Mainland. It is well known that many orchards planted with the best of intentions and by men of more or less experience are not successful commercially. This is happening at the present time not less in British Columbia than in the States south of us. Most of the losses so incurred by intending planters can be prevented by following the proper methods, which need only be understood to be followed. With the idea of showing planters of orchards the best methods for success commercially in orcharding, the Depart. of Agriculture therefore proposes to co-operate under practical conditions. These orchards will be practical object lessons of the methods best calculated to avoid the usual causes of failure and to get the owner the best returns for his investment.

The general terms of operation will be as follows: An orchard area of five acres is desired, the land cleared and if in a timbered district cropped to cover or other improver by the owner. If irrigation is essential the water must be laid on to the highest point of land with the necessary permanent works for distribution.

In demonstration orchards the maintenance charges of irrigation system will be borne by the owner who will also fence the orchard if necessary.

The government will bear the cost of plowing and preparing the land for planting, and the cost of marking out the land, and planting the trees. The varieties best suited to the district commercially will be chosen. The trees will be selected personally at the nursery by a representative of the government and the government will furnish those trees free at the railway station oft he planter.

During each year of operation the government will reimburse the owner for any expenditure incurred by the operations in excess of those considered necessary for the proper care of the orchard. This amount shall be agreed upon specifically in each district.

The government throughthe horticultural branch of the department of Agriculture will give full instruction and demonstration each year tot he owner in all orchard operations. The owner must undertake to follow implicitly the instructions of therepresentative of the Department. He will also bear all costs of apparatus for cultivation etc. and will undertake to doall the work necessary.

The owner will agree to keep accurate records of costs etc. and to report to the department on record banks provided for the same.

The orchard may be used for public demonstrations at the times of the principal cultural operations.

The agreement entered into by the contracting parties shall be binding for five years terminating at that time on six months' notice by either party, after which time the trees become entirely the property of the owner of the owner.

Intending planters who are interested in co-operation along this line for the encouragement of proper methods of fruit growing in this district can secure further information regarding this work on application to J. F. Carpenter Assistant Horticulturist at Victoria, or direct to the Provincial Horticulturist, Department of Agriculture, Victoria.

As the time for receiving applications is limited to the next few weeks prompt action is necessary to have your application considered.

Deputy Minister of Agriculture

LABOR DAY IN MISSION

The citizens of Mission City intend apparently to have a good time on Labor Day. An excellent programme has been prepared and posters are out announcing the different events of the day.

It is noticed that a New Westminster league baseball match is one of the attractions. A motor boat race is to be pulled off on the Fraser river. Then there is to be a tug of war between C. P. R. and Mission sports. There are other attractions that should be different events of the day.

A first-class orchestra from Abbotsford will supply music for the dance in the evening, which is sure to be one of the best drawing cards that the people of Mission could secure.

CONTEMPLATES BUILDING

Arthur Jones of Smith and Jones of Vanebuver was in town this week. It is reported that he intends to build a business block on the corner of Cyril and Essendene avenue. It is probable that one of our local merchants will occupy a large portion of the ground floor for a general store.

PUBLIC SCHOOL OPENS

The public school opened on Monday last with seventy pupils in attendance. There will probably be at least about twenty or more later on.

Mr. Harold McArthur is principal and Miss Archibald is assistant.

CONCERT AND BASKET SOCIAL

A concert and basket social will be given in the Maple Leaf Hall on Friday evening, August 9th by St. Matthews Church of England. The ladies are requested to bring baskets. An excellent musical programme has been provided and all who attend are promised a grand time. See poster for particulars.

ANNIVERSARY SERVICES

The anniversary services of the St. Matthews church, conducted by the vicar, Rev. A. E. Daviss on August 21 were well attended by the people. Excellent music was provided by the choir. The ladies of the congregation had the church most artistically decorated, for the occasionand deserve credit for the beautiful appearance of the interior of the church on this special service. Among those who contributed selections were Mr. H. H. Skelton, which was much appreciated.

ABBOTSFORD DRUG STORE

A SUCCESSFUL DANCE

One of the most successful dances ever held in a private house in this vicinity was given by Mr. Cyril Hilton-Harrop on Tuesday evening last. The interior of the residence was most tastefully decorated and great preparations had been made for the guests of the evening. The host of Lythwood Ranch proved himself a most admirable one and everyone was loud in their praises of the good old English dance which he gave. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. A. Harrop, The Misses Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Buckley, Miss L. Hill-Tout, Miss M Remington, Mr. Mrs. and Miss Shortreed, Mr. C. Sumner, Mr. A. E. Barrett, Mr. B. J. Gernacy, Mr. J. Heath, Mr. and Mrs. McGowan, Messrs. Chas. Wm. and Allan Hill-Tout, Mr. H. H. Skelton, Mr. A. Nixon, Mr. N. Robinson and Rev. A. E. Daviss.

MATSQUI BOOMING

The new blacksmith shop is about completed.

There is talk of a new hotel being built now where the Nicholson blacksmith shop now stands.

Mr. Purrington will not build a new hotel as at first was contemplated.

School opened on Monday with a better attendance than ever before.

Grading has begun on the C. N. R. and the dirt is flying in great style. It is expected to have a greater part of the work done this fall.

INTENDS TO BUILD

H. Alanson has purchased the corner lot on Essendene Avenue opposite the Bank from Authier Bros and intends at an early date to build a handsome business block part of which he will use as a store.

OPENS UP BUSINESS

Mr. J. J. Sparrow has been busy hauling feed this week and now has his store open for business. It would appear from the amount of hay and feed he is putting in that he intends doing a good business We wish J. J. success.

FREE SCHOOL BOOKS

Since the last school term the education department has enlarged the scope of the free text book branch, now supplying Fifth readers, Latin grammars, and drawing books to the pupils of the lower high school grades.

MOST HAPPILY WEDDED

In St Andrews church, Golden, B C, on the 16th instant, by Rev. W. L. Macrae, Ida Charlotta Larson of this town to Karl Hanning Flodin of Matsqui, B. C.

Mr. J. K. McMenemy is to become a citizen of Abbotsford again. He has repurchased the blacksmith shop and will take possession this week. He has rented the cottage of Mr. S. J. Bates for a few months but intends building on Gladys avenue. We are pleased to to have Mr. and Mrs. McMenemy among us again.

Mrs. L. Legace spent a few days last week with friends in Dewdney She returned Sunday.

FRIDAY, SEPT. 2, 1910

Elsewhere we give the provincial government proposals for the establishment of a demonstration for the lower mainland. The establishment of demonstration orchards means a good deal in the development of the district in fruit growing and the proposals should receive the attention of all fruit growers.

Fruit growing is just in its infancy and there are many things in relation to this line of work that differ so much in different districts that it is very desirable to arrive at some basis of action applying to the Fraser Valley. There is pruning, spraying, cultivation of ground under the trees, remedies for insect pests, etc and a variety of other subjects capable of demonstration, which is now left to individual opinion. The new comer who settles on the land intending to grow fruit and seeking certain information is very confused and misled by the various opinions of his advisers. But with the results of a few seasons of experimental work in a demonstration orchard and the published results for reference the present uncertainty as to the best of methods to be adopted would be removed.

The provincial government are to be commended for the excellent work they are doing for this infant industry and laying a foundation for the fruit grower to work upon. The fact that a demonstration orchard is to be established on both sides of the Fraser shows that the government mean business. There should be plenty of places to choose from and it would be a good thing for this town if the choice fell on five acres close to Abbotsford.

—o—

There are a great many old orchards in the Fraser Valley that if improved by pruning and spraying and proper cultivation would grow excellent fruit, and if such a work could be carried on by the government and the results made known there is no doubt such a work would be highly beneficial to the fruit growing industry.

HOW THE BRITISH NAVY PROTECTS CANADIANS

Nearly forty years ago, before Canadian capitalists had turned their attention to Spanish America, writes Watson Griffith in February Busy Man's a Canadian by the name of McGee, a naturalist of no mean attainments, went from Montreal to Central America to make certain studies there, and eventually settled on the west coast of the republic of Guatemala at the little town of San Jose the port of entry for the capital city. He was shortly afterwards appointed British consular agent at San Jose. Thep osition was not a lucrative one but it had its honor and gave him time to pursue his studies. One evening in the year 1871, Mr. McGee was entertaining a few friends when a messenger came from the commandant at the port, saying he wished to see him. McGee said;

"Kindly give my compliments to the commandant and tell him it is impossible for me to go at present, but I will be over to see him as early in the evening as possible"

Shortly afterward the messenger returned and said; "The commandant demands your immediate presence and says to tell you if you do not at once appear before him he will place you under arrest.

McGee told the messenger that he would see the commandant in a better place than San Jose before before he would comply with such a treatening order, and if immediately he had better come himself.

The commandant did come, but with a body of soldiers, and carrying McGee off, to a military prison, ordered that he should receive fifty-one stripes and lay almost at death's door for several months at the home of another Canadian, Mr. Stanley McNider, of Guatemala City. He owed his life to the careful nursing of Mr. and Mrs. McNider, who, like himself, were natives of Montreal.

Meantime the British Minster at Guatemala had been active. He at once cabled the home office and immediately came a reply that a reply came that a British cruiser then lying off Punta Arenas, Costa Rica, had been ordered to San Jose and would be there within forty-eight hours, and instructions were that if during the interim the Guatemalan Government had not made official apology, not only to the British Government, but also to McGee, and agreed to pay McGee five hundred pounds sterling for each and every stripe received a total of about one hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars, San Jose should be taken. Before the British warship arrived the official apologies were given, immedate payment of the money offered and the commandant reduced to the ranks and imprisoned. McGee did not accept the money, he afterwards pointed out that the facilities for shipping and the landing of goods at San Jose were inadequate and if he were given exclusive docking rights he could secure capital to provide facilities The government of Gautemala granted him the exclusive rights asked for and he disposed of them to the Campania de Agencias, which to-day is one of the wealth iest corporations in Spanish America, while McGee himself is a multi millionaire.

THE MARKET.

The extremely low prices of the fruit at this season of the year was the feature at the market on Friday. Apples, plums and pears were on the market in large quantities and though the weather was favorable for the sale of fruit the demand was weak. The prices in consequence were low and the sale not great. This is accounted for partly by the reports of the fall apple crop which is reported to be exceptionally good. The apples on sale nowd o not keep long and are not as good for general use as the later apples. Thus the demand now is mostly for eating apples and it requires not a great deal to supply tha tdemand. Pears and plums also suffer from the weakness in apples and fruit on the market and could be purchased as cheaply as they will probably ever be again.

Pork dropped from 16 and 15c to 13 and 14 cents.

Eggs were unsteady but at the close of the market the price remained the same.—40 cents per dozen wholesale.

The rest of the prices remained about the sameas at previous markets but all the prices were not as strong as they have been. The market was the best that has been held for some time. There were a great many farmers and all sorts of buyers. The quantity of produce brought in far exceeded that brought in toprevious markets for some months past and during the day the transactions must have been totalled to a considerable sum.

The following are the quotations;

Beef, hindquarters, per lb	9 to 10c
Beef, forequarters, per lb	14 to 15c
Lamb, per lb	14 to 15c
Mutton, per lb	12 to 13c
Veal, large, per lb	9 to 10
Veal, medium, per lb	12c
Pork, prime, per lb	13 to 14c
Eggs, wholesale, per doz	38 and 40
Eggs, retail, per doz	45
Butter, wholesale, per lb	26c
Fowl, per doz, five	$7 and $8
Broilers, per dozen	$1to$2
Potatoes, new, per ton	$20
Apples, wholesale per box	60 to 85
Plums per crate	40 to 50c
Cucumbers, per doz	30c

MISSION CITY INKLINGS

(From Fraser Valley Record.)

The Misses Strang of New York were with Mrs. (Dr.) Stuart this week.

Mr. J. A. Coutham inspector of orchards was in the district this week. Mr. Coatham lives in Chilliwack but his duties take him to all parts of the province, but he is a loyal and enthusiastic believer in the advantages which the Fraser Valley offers to fruit growing.

Miss Francis, the new milliner at M DesBrisay's store, arrived on Monday last.

Mr. Bell will assume his duties at the barber shop this week thus letting Mr. Bert Miles off duty.

Mr. George Riggs, president of the Vernon Fruit Co., Vernon, B C. spent the day in Mission City yesterday with R. C. Abbott inspecting the loading of a car of plums.

B. Naish the colored porter who struck Mr. Conway about a fort night ago at the C. P. R. station here gave himself into the hands of the provincial police on Friday last and appeared before Magistrate Verchere. He was fined $5 and costs.

School opened on Monday with but two teachers in the Mission City, Miss McLeod, principal; and Miss McEwan, assistant.

Mr. J. Thornton, M. P. of Durham County, Ontario, and Mr. Benj. Thornton of Woodstock, Ontario, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Henry, Mount Prospect Fruit Farm.

Miss R. Marston who spent the past week with Mrs. A. S. Henry has returned to her home in Burlington, N. S.

Mr. F. C. Mills has leased the Mission City Hotel from the new purchaser, Mr. J. A. Hargitt, and has re-furnished the hotel throughout.

Mr. R. K. Graham representing Lee's Furniture Store of New Westminster being in town on Saturday last to sell Mrs. Mills the furniture which is a guarantee that the furnishings will be up-to-date in all respects. Mrs. Mills should do well in the new premises.

HATZIC NOTES

We notice with pleasure that tenders for the erection of a new school at Hatzic are being called for and we now feel assured that at last Hatzic will acquire proper educational facilities which have been denied her during the past.

The Dominion Express company have appointed an assistant to help agent Ross for the rest of the fruit season.

Blackberry shipments to the eastern markets are graudally getting smaller at this point and the crop is rapidly coming to an end this season. This has been a very profitable year to fruit growers in this locality and the outlook for the balance of the season seems very promising.

Miss Coburn of Vancouver is visiting her friend Miss Florence McTaggart.

Mr. A. Brealey was a passenger to Vancouver on Monday.

Miss E. and L. Knowling who have been spending the summer at Sunbeam Farm returned to their home in Vancouver last week.

Mr. H. Cutler was in Vancouver on Monday.

Mr. A. Catherwood has secured the contract for the building of the new Mission school.

Mr. Geo Ross spent Sunday in Vancouver.

Miss Sterling, formerly of Erndale, arrived in Hatzic on Saturday to take charge of the local school.

ABBOTSFORD DISTRICT MARKET

TO THE GENERAL PUBLIC

Special arrangements have been made by me to supply the public of Vancouver from the 1st day of September with hampers of

Farm Produce

Consisting of Chickens, Ducks, Geese, Fresh Fruit, Vegetables, Butter, Eggs.

What Could Be Better for the District?

Why not, therefore, patronize the man who studies the farmers' interest and is always working for them to obtain the highest price for their

PRODUCTS

I have established a market at your own doors where you can bring your stock and obtain the highest prices under competition,

WHY, THEREFORE

Sell to the individual who comes to your door and buys at his own prices.

BE WISE FARMERS

Bring your stock and chickens to the market, tell the man who visits your door that he can enter into competition with others there. As you will sure obtain their market value, the dealers value is the most he can make out of it for himself. You do the work and he takes the profits.

I established your Abbotsford Market. I asked you to bring stock, chickens, etc. I advertised for you but my requests were always met with the reply

BUY THEM YOURSELF.

Now take this to heart and digest it well, because I know the farmers will not like to hear it, but never the less its true.

A Record of My Purchases and Resales at the Yards

And don't forget it was not more than 24 hours after I made the purchase either. Bought, 13 steers for $300, sold them for $418, profit $118; bought 5 pigs for $12 each, sold them for 98, profit $38, bought 2 sows and a boar for $90, sold them for 120, profit 30, bought line of 22 head of cattle for 25 each, sold them at prices averaging 38, profit 286; bought 1 team of horses for 450, sold them for 735, profit 285, and sundry other things. Now look at my commission it would have been $110 35 and look at my profit $733. Now the wise farmers who thought they were getting good prices from the fool of an auctioneer just lost $646.45 by their want of knowledge of

RULING MARKET RATES

But still they say the farmer will never get out of his lax and slovenly ways. But he will find he will have to, if he desires to keep pace with the modern ways of the world.

Be Advised from Headquarters

Sell at the places where there must be competition. Be satisfied when you are getting a good price. And if you are not satisfied to sell at the Market Yards now, then I am still prepared to trade, deal or buy from you, and will probably give you better value than you can get from any one else, but mind this I am not out for the good of my health, but only for one purpose, and that is

TO MAKE MONEY

THE ABBOTSFORD MARKET YARDS will be re-opened on THURSDAY, SEPT. 13, 1910, when Cattle, Horses, Sheep, Hogs, Chickens, etc. will be offered, also a quantity of New Furniture, but the Market will be conducted on an entirely different principle in future, viz.:

It Will be a Sale Without Reserve

Because people have been in the habit of putting prices on their stock far and above the market value. Things will always bring their market value if advertised properly and to do this, entries for each sale will close at least 4 days before date of Auction. Then again I have decided to make my markets the same as a Fair and I have consequently decided
